“ "Bertha Bee" was an amazing lady. She took care of my sisters and I while my parents worked. I remember feeling loved and safe when in her care. As a shy little girl, I didn't trust easily but "Bertha Bee" and I had a very special bond. It's weird the things you remember, whether clear out not...here are a few. She made the BEST chicken and dumplings I ever tasted! We would take walks around her neighborhood and there was a wagon involved for the littlest kids. When it was nap time and you were a buggie kid, if you laid really still and quiet, you could be sneaky and watch some soap operas "with" her...she probably knew you were awake, but you thought you were pulling one over on her. When you were in her home you felt safe, loved, and one of hers. My heart hurts for her family's loss. Hugs, thoughts, and prayers to you all. I thank you for sharing your wife/sister/mom/grandma/friend with all of the children that came into her home. She was one of a kind. Thank you, "Bertha Bee". I love you!!

“ Bertha known as “B” to my family was all 3 of my Kids babysitter. She took them on daily walks, taught them the pledge of allegiance at the age of 2 -3, all kinds of songs/nursery rhymes for each holiday, the abc, to count, how to write their name and recognize letters and numbers, fixed them food that my kids would eat for her and curl their nose up for me and then when I fixed the a meal it was never as good as B's! “This isn't as good as B's _____.” (enter any food in the world). She was the absolute best and loved them unconditionally! B was one of a kind and we loved her too! B and PaPa's house was a blessing for me as a mother. I will always be thankful for all she did for my children and they have cherished memories as well. God's Blessings to the family,
Karna, Kylie, Kole, and Luke

“ She not only was a good babysitter, she told great snake stories. She had worked at Max Allen's Zoological Gardens, when she was younger. She said she put a snake in Leroy's car once so he would let her drive it. I thought she was great fun & a special person. I loved to go home to church & see Leroy & Bertha, they remain a part of my extended church family from growing up to now! Love, prayer, & hugs to Leroy, Jodi, & Greg.

“ One of the first we met at FBC when we moved to Versailles in 1968. She took such good care of all those they helped raise. She did feed the kids well too. Blessings on her whole family. Glad she is celebrating with Jesus.

“ You didn't have to knock or ring a door bell. That screen door to the carport was always open and there was usually a snack to be had in B's kitchen. If not, then she would make something. She was one of many Moreau Heights moms that treated you like you were theirs...to include any disciplinary action that was called for. She was truly a dandy lady that I will miss. Condolences to the family. I love you guys!
