CORINNA ALLGYER

Corinna Lynn Allgyer was born on September 27, 1981 in Burns Lake, British Columbia to John and Olinda Wiens.

She attended Danskin Mennonite School for ten years. At the age of fifteen, Corinna accepted Christ as Lord of her life. She loved spending time outdoors riding horse, or working in the flower beds and garden. The greenhouse that her Dad built for her was a special delight and she spent hours tending her plants. Her brothers remember her often whistling and singing as she worked or played. In the summer of 1999, Corinna traveled to Guatemala with her parents to visit her brother Trevor. There she met James Allgyer.

In September 2000, James asked Corinna for her friendship. They promised their lives to each other on March 8, 2002. They lived in Ewing, Illinois until 2013 when they moved to Barnett, Missouri. Corinna was a member of the Ridge View Mennonite Church. She faithfully supported James when he was ordained minister in 2015, and embraced the calling God placed on their lives.

God blessed Corinna and James with five precious children. Corinna loved her babies and enjoyed each stage of watching her children grow. Holding James's hand with her children all gathered around was her highlight of every day. She loved receiving flowers from James and the children.

Corinna will be remembered for her unselfish heart, often expressing appreciation of how others gave of themselves for the sake of her family. She loved to serve others and always enjoyed visiting with family and friends. God blessed her with the gift of making people feel welcome in her home and in her presence. She loved to sew and her friends will miss her advice about patterns, sewing and covering-making.

Her mother will miss hearing Corinna's voice across the phone lines each week just to chat and tell her about their everyday lives. James always felt honored hearing Corinna speak of him to her mother. He also treasured the friendship she shared with his mother.

This past Christmas Corinna and her family traveled to British Columbia to spend the Christmas holidays with the Wiens family. She mentioned numerous times, "I hope the next family gathering can be in Missouri. I'll do ALL the planning, if the rest of the family will JUST COME!" Little did anyone know the planning being done in Heaven!

On May 30, 2020, angels carried Corinna gently HOME to be with her Savior.

She leaves behind her loving husband, James and five precious children – Burnell (15), Ashton (13), Tiffany (9), Kayonna (5), and Jolyssa (4). She will be deeply missed by her parents, John and Olinda Wiens of Chilliwack, British Columbia; her four brothers, Trennis and Brenda of Danskin, British Columbia; Trevor and Fern of Campbell River, British Columbia; Leroy and Marilyn of Cheyenne, Wyoming; Lyndon and Amanda of Black Creek, British Columbia; her parents-in-law, Lee and Fern Allgyer of Whittington, Illinois; three sisters-in-law, Marigold and James Zimmerman of Whittington, Illinois; Rosie and Garrison Statt of California, Missouri; Rose and Duane Zimmerman of Ewing, Illinois; three brothers-in-law, Gabriel and Nancy of Klingerstown, Pennsylvania; Virgil and Sharlene of North East, Pennsylvania; Daniel and Violet of Benton, Illinois; and thirty-seven nieces and nephews.
