“ To all the family of Gertrude Bias. My deepest condolences to the family on your loss of Gertrude. She was, indeed, a truly remarkable lady. I will miss our conversations.

God hath not promised skies always blue, flowers-stewn pathways all our lives through. God hath not promised sun without rain, joy without sorrow, peace without pain. But God hath promised strength for the day, rest for the labor, light for the way, grace for the trails, help from above. unfailing sympathy, undying love.

Rest in peace beautiful soul. You have earned it. You deserve it.

Love you,

“ What a wonderful lady and woman of God. She loved all her kids and would remember them even after they grew up. Of course she would have some stories to tell me of how much of a little stinker I was growing up (I really don't know what she was talking about, I was such an angel). So very sorry for you Family Rick but happy to know that she is rejoicing in Heaven and we will see her again one day. Prayers

“ Loved our neighbor when we lived on Maple Street. Was always amazed at all her "kids". She shared her love and care with so many people. I know she did a great job with her boys as I was witness to Rick's sermons on our back stop. Darell and I shared a love of racing cars and late night drives. She like my mother was an awesome prayer warrior for her family and community. See you one day Miss Gertrude.

“ Gertrude was our daughter's babysitter back in the 80s, our Tara's happy place. Gertrude was one of the dearest people I had the pleasure of knowing, and she was responsible for one of my close friends in high school: Rick Bias.

Grace and peace to the family.

“ Gertrude was my mom, Pat Walters dear friend and school mate. Along with Elizabeth Stevens they had many adventures while the husbands had hospital appointments. They loved shopping and eating out. She taught to to hand quilt when I was a teen. She watched my kids while I substituted. She was an inspiration to all. She will be missed
