“ Peggy and family,
We are sorry to hear of Glen's recent death. We were neighbors for many years watching our children grow up and sharing some fun times together. It wasn't long ago Glen was in Topeka and stopped by to say hello and visit, which was very thoughtful and appreciated. You are in our thoughts and prayers. May God bless your family.

“ An authentic "man of steel and velvet", this rugged outdoorsman, loved his family, his friends, and his God with a tender heart.
"Thank you, Glen, for your influence of integrity on your/our Eric, Monica, Holden, Esther, and Ashton, you've been a special Dad and Papa as well as our dear friend,"
From his many years of outdoor adventures and vast knowledge of God's amazing nature, Glen, shared endless stories.
We remember Glen's open smile and warm words that made him a friend to so many people. Les and Linda Wright

“ Dear Peggy and family,
What a great friend we lost when Glen went to be with his Lord and Savior. We miss him so much. Any time we had a question about anything in the outdoors Glen would be the one to ask. If we needed something fixed at the church we knew he would be willing to help. He lived our his faith in very practical ways. We plan to meet him again in heaven. We pray for his family. May God bring you comfort and healing.

“ My condolences go out to the family. Glen was a great guy and always willing to offer help. He shared his trapping and furing experience with everyone. I learned alot from him, usually he laughed at my trials. I will miss him.

“ In memory of my friend Glen. I am thankful that I was able to share some of his journey in life.

This is what the Lord says “Stand at the crossroads and look; ask for the ancient paths, ask where the Good Way is, and walk in it and you will find rest for your soul.” (Jeremiah 6:16)

*Glen took the Good Way that led him and will lead us to ...(Ephesians 2:8-10)
Eph 2:8-10 “For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God, not of works so that no one can boast. For we are God’s workmanship created in Christ Jesus to do good works which God prepared in advance to do.”

*Glen truly had a servants heart.

Praise God that Glen walked in the Good Way for it took him to the reality of Corinthians 2:9, “as it is written, no eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love Him.”

*I can only imagine what he is experiencing right now, even as I reflect on this promise from our wonderful Lord. Celebration! Worship!! Wow!! He has finished the race and gained the crown of life! He has fought the good fight of faith and has heard those words from our Lord,” Well done my good and faithful servant.

*He has found rest for his soul. I believe if Glen could relate to us the truth from his perspective now, he would probably be quoting { Philippians 1:21}

“For me to live was Christ and to die is gain!” (Philippians 1:21)

*I am thankful Glen IS my friend and I will be seeing him again! Doug M.

“ Peggy and family, we send our deepest sympathies regarding Glen's passing. We loved Glen, and have so many great memories with him. One is when we moved from Nebraska to Iowa and didn't know a soul in the town we were moving to. My parents helped us pack up and drive our huge moving truck to Iowa City. We stayed the night in a hotel, and the four of us were not looking forward to unloading the entire thing ourselves the next morning. After our morning closing, we arrived at our new place and Uncle Jerry and Glen were waiting for us to help unload! We couldn't believe they made the trip all the way up to do that. Another favorite is when he built an art desk for my husband to give me for my birthday out of trees from my parent's farm, and surprised me by delivering it to my house in IA with Doug. He always gave the best hugs and was always happy to see us and do whatever we asked of him (usually blessing us with his carpentry skills). We shared a love of art and visited about that frequently. I will miss seeing him on our trips back home and will never forget his kind heart and love for others. - Tara (Wright) and Grant Bleeker
