“ So sorry to hear of the passing of Mick. She was always a friendly face on my paper route during the 70s. I remember her visits to our house when my mom hosted 'club'. I think back to those get-togethers and kind of wish I had something like that today. Mom and Mick were such good friends whether at home or at OPPD. I didn't know much personally about Mick but I'm glad to have known her nonetheless. She was a good soul.

“ My deepest sympathy to you, Jane and all of your family. Mick was a dear friend to me. I met her through Maxine Socha and she joined our 'club'. We had many late evenings of fun. I can see that Mick had more sorrows in her life, but I never knew about all of them. She was such a fun, caring and uplifting soul. May she rest in peace!
