“ Jackie and George are two of the best friends I have ever had. We have known each other since I was 11 and that would have been 1954. They have been an integral part of my life since. There are so many good memories that I will cherish till I die. My heart aches and my eyes fill with tears as I write this. She was a wonderful woman and I was blessed to have her in my life.

She was truly one of the best patients I have ever seen. She tolerated the boating accident and her illness with total courage and resilience. I have never seen anyone do it better. She was a true soldier who battled valiantly. I am horribly sad for her loss, but happy that her battle is over. May she now rest in peace.

“ I will always remember my Aunt Jackie! The thing that I will remember more than any of the fun times we had was how welcome she made you feel. She would do anything for anyone, and you always felt loved and welcome in her home and her heart. She loved her family and friends, and she loved her animals! I'm so glad that she was able to see her granddaughter get married recently. She lived a great life, and she will be missed by so many.

“ Nobody can make Italian casserole like Aunt Jackie! No more lemonade pie either. I will miss seeing Action Jackson boating around the lake in Purplelicious. She taught her cat Sunflower to attack everyone else besides her. It was always fun going to their house, whether it was lake house 43, lake house 38, Colt Drive, or Fairlawn. There were good times and Neil Diamond on the stereo. It was great to see you in Seattle. Thanks for all the good memories. Rest in peace.

“ Aunt Jackie spent a great deal of time sitting through my dance recitals and school plays when I was growing up. She loved crafts and quilting and made many things for me. One of my most prized possessions is a little quilt she made for my cat, Earl Grey. I am glad to have special reminders of her in my home, including the Purdue University Boilermakers pillow cases she made for me, even though she probably had to resist the urge to hurl :)

“ Jackie was such a great friend. We have shared many laughs, hugs and tears over the years. She loved life and was a fierce fighter to try and beat that “C”, but in the end it was more than she had to give. She lived for George, her kids, grandkids and great kiddos. If you knew her you were fortunate because special ones like her are a cherished gift from above! RIP my sweet friend, until that sweet day I get to see you again.
