“ Jim and I were toddlers together at birthday parties. We were school mates from kindergarten through high school. I am saddened to hear of Jim's passing but know that he is in heaven rejoicing. Prayers for you, Maxine and your family, for comfort during this time and in the months ahead. There are several of us who graduated together who understand the grief of losing our spouses.

“ I find it too difficult to find only one memory to share. I have spent a great deal of time thinking about Jim and his impact on our family since hearing from Maxine about his passing. Our family has reminisced and shared a lot of laughs and a few tears during these days. Our families have been so connected for so many years, there will be a huge missing piece as we go forward, but I will cherish all of the times we have had together. Most of the memories center around water, boats and camping - like sunken cars and boats, learning to ski and slalom, storms, hiding under the front of the boat, Jim's new toy, moves to the lake and sooo many more. But, there are also memories of card games, cabinet painting, baton contests, getting a kitten, the bowling alley, riding in the grain truck, several new homes, and your generous hearts in letting me stay with you in the city. It doesn't seem like enough, but my thoughts and prayers are with all of your family during this unspeakably sad time and during the new reality to come. Please consider all of yourselves hugged. I won't be there in person to offer support, but I will be praying and offering support from afar. Much love and comfort to all of you.

“ Fred and I will miss Jim so much. Seeing him pull up to the dock in that Old Red Sea ray we knew we were going to have some fun. Visiting over a couple drinks at Red Fox was one of our good memories. Going to Uncle Earl and Aunt Betty's was a hoot. We will definitely miss Jim. Fred and Ann Dean

“ Maxine, your life nor the RGV will ever be the same. We will miss his smile, sense of humor, and twinkling eyes. Thankfully we do not grieve as those who have no hope — 1 Thes 5:13. Heaven does grow sweeter with each passing. Peace and love to you and your family at this painful time. Jim and Sheryl Watts

“ Jim, always ready for a good party or boat ride! Thank you Jim for having been one of best lake neighbors we could ever have. We will miss him buzzing around in his golf cart, starting that boat up for his evening cruise, and sharing his homemade peppermint schnapps, but most of all his caring way, friendly nature and spirited attitude He will forever have a place in our heart and memories!

“ Jim loved to dance. That was my first memory of him in the RV park at Paradise South. He also love to swim and enjoyed the social events. Will miss your humor. Prayers your way as you enjoy your eternal journey.
