Comments

“ I am truly sorry to hear of the loss of Mary. Please accept my condolences and may all our prayers help comfort the family and hasten the journey of her soul to Heaven. It was an honor to have known such a great person. Anyone can be forgotten but not a woman who chose a life of selflessness and generosity. We will never forget you. May God grant you peace and the well-deserved rest.

Love,
Lila Ma

“ I recently heard about the passing of Mary. I was so sorry to hear. I met Mary in 2005 when she was a client at a Wellness Center in MI. We hit it off instantly. I loved to hear her stories of travel and most importantly, her relationship with our Savior, Jesus Christ. My husband and I had the honor of being invited to her home in MI a couple times for dinner. We had lost contact over the years, but back in 2013 we were reunited. It was just like we had never been separated. She came out to our new home and said, “This is God’s house”. She had recently sold her home and asked me if I’d like the Angel that she had in her backyard. I accepted, and the Angel is still in my yard today. Every time I looked at it I thought of her, and now moreso. I will miss you Mary. I was privileged to know such a kind, loving, caring, selfless human being. I will see you again.
