“ Mattie and I had a special relationship. I was not only her political candidate in 1990 that she created ads for, or her insurance agent for 25 years, I was her friend. I already miss her.

I loved her stories of how she and "the love of her life" Bill met. He was so impressed that she could ride a bicycle backwards! They were truly a love story, and one that continues to inspire me.

Her upbeat spirit and unusual use of the English language always made me smile. Her consistent delivery of goodies to the office kept me always in debt to her kindness.

My friend, Mattie, composed a beautiful poem from my information. It was of my Dad's life on the occasion of his 80th birthday. She was truly gifted with rhyme.

I didn't see her enough in the end but will treasure the many visits through the years. She truly is the definition of "one of a kind".

“ Aunt Matt was my Dad's half brother's wife. She definitely knew what it meant to "March by the beat of a different drum". She was unique and encouraged me to be a leader and not a follower. I have found memories of singing in the church choir with her as well as playing bells. I so enjoying her fried pies that she made for our family reunions. I don't think I ever told her that I was a Republican. I think I would have got a scolding. I remember voting at the polls and she explained to me that I could just mark the democrat ticket at the top of my ballot. I haven't seen her in several years but she will always have a place in my heart and a she will always be a vivid memory of my childhood. I pray she is with Uncle Bill now like old times.
