“ We have known Roger and his sweet little dogs for over 13 years; that's when we moved to Blossom Drive. Roger always kept an eye on everyone's property, making sure everything was ok. Dennis just saw Roger out fishing a couple weeks ago. It's going to be strange not seeing Roger's truck drive by our place every day. One memory we have that will always be with us is when Roger blacked out after passing our house and ended up in the lake! Although that could have been a tragic thing, it turned out ok and we could laugh about it. We drank a toast in honor of Roger after his passing. He will be missed!

We sincerely hope your memories of Roger will bring you peace and a smile. You'll be in our prayers.

“ We were Roger's neighbor at the lake. We always looked forward to Roger stopping by for a visit. He made sure our sailboat was OK after a storm because he knew we worried about it since we didn't live at the lake full time. He always knew everything going on in the cove was ready to share his stories. It won't be the same without Roger.
