

Rosemary Loretta Placke

November 23, 1930 - July 28, 2016

Rosemary Loretta Placke, age 85, of Sunrise Beach, Missouri, passed away Thursday, July 28, 2016, at University of Missouri Hospital and Clinics in Columbia. She was born November 23, 1930, in Kansas City, Kansas, a daughter of the late Herman and Vina (King) Stiffler.

She is survived by her husband of sixty-four years, Albert Placke; daughters, Karen Placke and Kathy Hawkins; sister, Vickie Stewart, sister-in-law, Patti Dawson and cousin, Phyllis Reece. Her grandchildren include, Jennifer, Paul, Sara, Andrew, Amber, Melissa, Melody and Kevin and seventeen great-grandchildren.

Rosemary started her life in Kansas City, Kansas and retired from Sealright. Following retirement, she moved to the Lake of the Ozarks. Rosemary was involved in the local TOPS group, holding various offices throughout the years. She spent most days traveling to dialysis, where she brightened the room there with her colorful outfits and positive outlook. Days at home were spent watering her plants, reading, and catching up with family and friends. Keeping her husband Al in line and happy filled her days.

A celebration of Rosemary's Life will be held at 2:30 p.m., Sunday, July 31st, at the Kidwell-Garber Laurie/Sunrise Beach Chapel. The family will receive friends from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m., Sunday, at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions are suggested to the Hurricane Deck Elementary Library.

Arrangements are under the direction and care of the Kidwell-Garber Laurie/Sunrise Beach Chapel.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time. I will miss Rosemary at dialysis. I always loved taking care of her. She was always dressed like she was going out on a date! I would joke with her the whole time, and when I walked her out to Al, I would tell him to take this pretty lady out on a date! She will be greatly missed!
