“ In the first half of 2017 my mother was in the California Care Center, and we often shared our table in the dining hall with Sherry. She really brightened up our time there and we always talked about all sorts of subjects. Sometimes her son would be there and we could all talk baseball (Rockies vs Cardinals) and the Rocky Mountains. I'm sure the health problems she was going through were difficult, but I'm glad she was there when we were. Wally Groth
