“ I controlled my sorrow while talking with my brother when he gave me the news of her passing, but after I got off the phone I started to realize that I had lost the only person in my life who had given me pure unconditional love. Mom gave that love to all of my sisters and brothers. In good times and in bad times, she loved us all equally and never expected anything in return. Mom could always forgive, even though I knew she was hurt, the greatest thing she had ever instilled in me was to forgive especially family, mom was always ready to forgive us, I will really miss her. As a young boy she encouraged me to dare to be different and follow my dreams, although she new it meant I would be away from her for long periods of time searching for my way in this world and she did not let me go without faith in Jesus, Mom thanks for that so very much. My mother was a warm, generous, and outgoing person in her day who her and my dad had many friends. She was very generous, especially to relatives and friends who would visit and always stay for dinner or how ever long they wanted. Mom is gone now and we will all miss her very much. Her unconditional love will especially be missed. You deserve to be in heaven, mom!
I will always love you your son James
