“ One of the best ladies I have ever known. She watched me from the time I was little and we were good friends until she passed away. Lots of great memories with her and Harold that will never be forgotten. I'm really going to miss you.

“ 15+ years ago. NASCAR and Sunday Dinner at the house in Tipton. Roast Chicken with all the fixings. Got introduced to Uncle Harold's knife collection. What a great old house. What a grand lady. Possibly my best memory from those years. My son, Chris and I walked the neighborhood in the afternoon. Aunt Alma Lou treated us like her own. Like I said, what a GRAND lady.
