

Alma Marie Hatch

June 8, 1940 - December 5, 2014

Alma Marie Hatch, age 74, of Versailles, Missouri, passed away early Friday morning, December 5, 2014 at the Golden Age Care Center in Stover, Missouri.

Marie was born on June 8, 1940 in Prairie City, Illinois, the daughter of Carl Hatch and June (McLaren) Hatch.

She retired after a long career with the Illinois Department of Mental Health. Marie was loved by her family and friends for having a loving and fun personality. Those that knew Marie would attest that she was a devoted St. Louis Cardinals Fan, dog lover, and a skilled Yahtzee player.

Marie is preceded in death by her parents, Carl and June Hatch.

She is survived by her two sons, Jim Boyd and his wife Kat of Versailles, and John Boyd and his wife Cindy of Columbus Junction, Iowa; two sisters, Bev Onion and Caroline Hughes; along with 8 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren. Marie was a devoted mother and loving grandmother, she will be greatly missed.

A Celebration of Marie's life will be held in Abingdon, Illinois at a later date.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Alzheimer's Association at www.alz.org

Arrangements are under the care and direction of Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home of Versailles.
