“ My momma was a handful. She was stubborn, head-strong, ornery, and goofy. We didn't always see eye to eye but I knew she loved me and my kids. She cared too much at times affecting her health, but she refused to quit. I love my dad 10 yrs ago and now her. I still have Toby and we have been getting closer with all of this like she wanted. I will always remember the good times. My husband tells me everyday that I'm as stubborn as she was and that makes me smile.

“ I knew Anna from working at the Versailles Wal-Mart. I worked in the Pharmacy until I retired in 2018. Anna always had a beautiful smile and we talked a lot when she came into the Pharmacy. My deepest condolences to the family. She will be missed.
