

Anna M. Weaver

January 9, 1946 - October 9, 2021

Anna's love for children was a big part of her life. They dedicated many years to taking care of foster children and prison babies. Her greatest concern was that her children and grandchildren knew about Jesus. She sang "Jesus Loves Me" to them and that was sung to her per her request in her last final days. Her final request was to see her two foster daughters that they had taken care of many years ago. She was granted her request to see both of them in the final days before she passed away.

Anna M. Weaver, age 75, peacefully passed away at her home in Barnett, Missouri, on Saturday, October 9, 2021, after a diagnosis of congestive heart failure. She was born on January 9, 1946, in Voganville, Pennsylvania, to Edwin S. and Elizabeth W. Martin.
