“ Annette was such a good natured person. She had a great sense of humor and always a kind word and a smile for everyone. During her life she raised children that needed a mom, she was a wonderful daughter and sister and took care of her best friend Pearl. She loved dogs and cats and all of nature. In her later years when her eyesight had failed her, she still managed to make her little angels to sell or give away. They were beautiful and it was amazing she could do that delicate needlework. Those angels kept her going in life. She loved Our Savior and is now home with him. Annette was an angel here on earth and is a Heavenly Angel now. We will always have a loving memory of Annette. She was so special.
