“ I just now saw this. I worked with Barbara in Richmond Mo. Our first children were only babies then. We had a group who took turns having coffee at our homes. She was a wonderful nurse and always a joy to be around. We ran into each other from time to time throughout the years. So sorry to hear of her passing.

“ Knowing Barbara for merely hours I grew profoundly close given the short period of time, but I'm guessing this was a strong characteristic of her's throughout life! Being deeply impacted in the short snippet of time we both were so fortunate to share her joy for life and vigor for the good things is what will leave me most impressed upon. Missing you already Barbara, until we meet up again!
