“ Bev and I became friends when she started to come to the Versailles nutrition center. I would always take her meals out to her and talk to her about anything. she had the sweetest personality. She always had a smile on even when she wasn't feeling good. She even checked on me after my surgery. She is the sweetest person I know I am going to miss her. And she will be missed. Bev, I know now you are at peace. And you are healed and no more pain. Goodbye my friend.
