“ We're do I start you were the best most amazing grandma anyone could ask for and no matter what I did you were there for me and my family. I miss you more than anything and anyone on this whole entire world, I still can't believe you are gone but I'm doing everything I can to make you proud of me and teaching my kids everything you taught me. I will forever and always be your patience. Ashton and Nathan miss you SO much Ashton looks at the picture I have of you two on my fridge all the time and says grandma Bonnie and I say yes that's her she went to heaven but she loves you with all of her heart all three of you kids, Nathan will look at the picture I have of you on my dresser and just talk to you and say grandma Bonnie and it makes me smile to know they remember you and love you visiting. When Ashton woke up this morning and was sitting on the bed watching a movie he looked over and said grandma Bonnie so I know your still with us it helps a little bit but it's nothing compared to when you were here with us telling us stories of you growing up or raising your kids or times you spent with us grandchildren, oh how I miss hearing your stories and your voice and seeing that beautiful face and smile. I will do everything to make you proud. I love and miss you SO much

“ It's hard to believe that you are gone grandma. I know we didn't keep in much contact over the years but you were still my grandma. I remember every summer we would come down to spend time with you for part of our summer break. even before then you would take a bunch of us to one of the many creeks to go swimming or just to play. I miss those days of spending time with you. Every Easter we would get together as a family and have so much fun singing Elvis songs in your dining room at the cabin. But then again that wasn't just around the holidays, that was any time any of us got together. i hope you and mom are enjoying heaven cause it sure is getting lonely down here. give her a hug and kiss for me. love you always grandma.
