As with his close friends in Missouri, we have a ton of Minnesota memories of brad to .I guess we were all lucky to have a friend like brad. Everybody take care !!!!

“ Memories of my childhood have flashes of Brad throughout the years. I remember he had the coolest dog EVER. He and his pup would often visit us at the firework tent. Brad was always good for a detailed and entertaining story as well. Everyone always laughed and smiled around him. He had the best heart. He was such a loyal and good friend to my parents. Since my father passed he really stepped up and kept an eye on my mother. I never got to thank him but he was always appreciated. He will be greatly missed. He will always be loved as well. Amy Klug
