“ Brenda , I remember so many things we shared from elementary on thru us getting married I can't pick just one. I know what a wonderful person you were and no matter what you had that smile on your face. I watched you love and raise Brandon as your own and I know how very proud you were of Amanda too. You have done well with them they are wonderful young adults now. You will be missed so very much by all your family friends and classmates but we all know you are in a better place and pain free and everyone now has another angel watching over us.....rest in peace

“ Fond memories of Brenda in my moms kitchen! She had a great laugh and smile. And how she LOVED Brandon! She always had funny stories to tell us when he was little! My thoughts are with the Daniels family. Losing a child is not the natural order of things, you do not carry your pain alone. God is there to carry us when we cannot walk and when we don't have words. Peace be with you in His precious name.

“ It seems like just yesterday we were all still in high school and now another angel is at rest. May God give comfort to her family and know that one day they will see her again and that she is no longer in pain.

“ Seems like I didn't see Brenda often but when I did she always had a smile and I always considered her a true friend. She fought a long hard battle and I am so thankful that she isn't sick and in pain anymore and I know that she has a place in Heaven and is singing with the angels. Thank you Brenda for being in my life and being such a good friend. God Bless You.
