“ I'll never forget when Brian, Muppet, Shoecraft, and Jimmy all decided to drive me back to Denver after I missed my flight. Brian and Muppet just never left and ended up renting the apartment below me. We rode in the back of a tiny pickup after seeing Primus in Denver, down to Colorado Springs to see Sasha & Digweed, since we were tight with the opening DJ's. Crazy crazy times and he was like a big brother to me. Everything felt safe as long as Brian was there.

“ I have fond memories of Brian as his teacher and basketball coach at Versailles High School. Brian had unbelievable timing for blocking shots. His record of 9 blocks in the Windsor game held for 28 years until last year when it was tied by Justin Hamrick. Brian is still in 5th place for career blocks despite being injured for the majority of his career. He played several outstanding games at VHS but one in particular that sticks in my mind is the Osage game. Brian scored 17 points, 12 rebounds, and 5 blocked shots, helping to propel us to a victory over Osage. Brian will be greatly missed. Send a basketball with him just in case.

Brian was our first soccer coach when we moved here. He was such a goofball and so good with the kids. Seemed like a kid himself. RIP Brian.

“Oh way to many memories to chose from! Lord knows we had a lot of fun growing up as Laurie Boys! I'll never forget Brian's high school basketball days! Kid could block a shot like no other! I'll never forget the night that I let him convince me I could drive my chevy 4x4 across this creek we came upon. Well we didn't make it to say the least, lol! Water was in the floorboard of the cab, we climbed out the back glass at jumped to dry land! We had to walk miles to another buddies house so we could get him to pull us out! All ended well as we were pulled out and back on our way. On into the night we went. Brian, you will be forever missed along with that smile! Until we meet again my friend

I love this one! It was during the other team's foul shot. Brian walked up to me and said he was going to dunk. When the shot went up Brian just bailed to the other end of the court. I got the outlet pass and launched it to him down court. It was awesome and hilarious at the same time! I still remember the look on coach Hensley's face because Brian didn't rebound, but he couldn't say much because it worked! Ha!
