“ I was blessed to know Cecelia many years .
She became a truly dear friend and member of our family.

We shared dinner at Pioneer Restaurant, weekly. She was always tickled that the waitresses would greet us by name and knew we would want "hot tea with honey and lemon!"
I marveled at her tales of New York!

She loved fashion!!

Her story of first seeing Kevin, her future husband, never grew old.
She probably tired of us asking her to tell it but she always humored us. She was a romantic! You could see her eyes dance as she described him.

Thank you, Cecelia for sharing so much of your life with me. You will hold a special place in my heart!
