

Chad Earl "The Hulk" Hughes

August 5, 1980 - September 24, 2015

Chad Earl "The Hulk" Hughes, age 35, of Lake Ozark, passed away Thursday, September 24, 2015, in Granbury, Texas. He was born August 5, 1980, in Richmond, Missouri, a son of Jesse Hughes, Sr. and Charla Gross.

Chad was a 1999 graduate of Morgan County R-II High School. He was employed as an aviation mechanic with Air-Evac Lifeteam Medical Helicopters.

Chad was an amazing person. He was a loving son, brother, father and friend. Not only was he a big guy in stature - he had a big heart to match. Gifted with a contagious smile and personality, anyone who entered Chad's life couldn't help but be happy. He loved fishing, hunting, camping, Shark Week, working out, The Hulk and most of all, his family and friends. Chad loved his career as an aviation mechanic and took pride in everything he did throughout his life. He left behind many loving family members and friends who consider themselves lucky for each smile Chad shared and brought to their faces. He will be missed by many and can never be replaced.

He is survived by his son, Dalton Dorrell; his daughter, Kyra Hughes; his mother and step-father, Charla Gross-Hook and Donald Hook; his father and step-mother, Jesse Hughes, Sr. and Pamela; siblings, Jesse Hughes, Jr. and wife Amanda, Sacha Morris and husband Travis, Melissa Hughes, Katie Dunn and husband Steve and Christopher Hughes; nieces and nephews, Jaycee, Hunter, Kysor, Taven, Sandalyn, Teagan, Kwame, Maysa, Kaythie and Sophia; four uncles, five aunts and many other relatives and friends.

A celebration of Chad's life will be held at 4:00 p.m., Friday, October 2nd, at the Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home in Versailles.

Arrangements are under the direction and care of the Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home of Versailles.

“ My prayers are with Chad's family. I haven't seen Chad since high school, but my memories of him are happy ones. His locker was always next to mine in school, he was always a happy person then and a super nice guy. I know he will be so missed by his family and friends. God speed.
