

Charles Lancaster "Lank" McBroom

November 9, 2009

Charles Lancaster "Lank" McBroom, age 95, of Latham, passed away Monday, November 9, 2009, at the Tipton Oak Manor. He was born April 16, 1914, in Latham, Missouri, the son of the late Charles and Fannie Hill McBroom.

On October 20, 1937, in California, Missouri, he was united in marriage to Lois Kelsay, who survives of the home. Together they just celebrated their 72nd wedding anniversary.

Lank worked road construction and later drove a truck and worked for Pettigrew's Store in Latham. He was on the Latham School Board in 1952, the year they decided to consolidate all of the country schools. Later, he enjoyed farming and going to the sale barns.

He was a member of the Hopewell Union Church.

In addition to his wife, Lois, he is survived by his son, Larry McBroom of Clinton; his daughter, Linda Peck of Latham; three grandchildren, Robbin Peck, Randy Peck and wife Diane, and Charles McBroom and wife Amy; and many other relatives and friends. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Harold McBroom, and his sisters, Audrey Blankenship and Alta Mae Harrell.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m., Friday, November 13, at the Hopewell Union Church in Barnett with Pastor Randy Smith officiating. Interment will follow in the Hopewell Church Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m., Friday, at the church. Memorial contributions are suggested to the Hopewell Union Church. Expressions of sympathy may be left online at www.kidwellgarber.com. Arrangements are under the direction of the Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home of Versailles.
