

Charles Wayne McGinnis

July 13, 1946 - March 15, 2012

Charles Wayne McGinnis, age 65 of Versailles, passed away in his home on Thursday, March 15, 2012. He was born July 13, 1946, in Versailles, the son of Chloe L. Ward Ferguson and the late Charles Everett McGinnis.

Wayne was a Vietnam veteran and served as a mechanical engineer at the Sunflower Gun Powder Plant. He previously lived and worked in the Kansas City area and managed large apartment complexes in maintenance until he returned to Versailles where he then worked in maintenance at the Kidwell Home and Good Shepherd Care Center until his health became an issue and retired. Wayne loved spending time with family and friends and was always making others laugh.

Wayne is survived by his mother, Chloe Ferguson of Pearl River, LA; two daughters, Katherine McGinnis of Mesa, AZ, and Jennifer Young of Moberly, MO; three sons, Gabriel McGinnis of Moberly, MO, Luke McGinnis of Kansas City, MO, and Brian (McGinnis) McKay of Lawrence, KS; four sisters, June Yows of Barnett, MO, Jean Fiser, Patty Cable, and Angela Raines all of Gravois Mills, MO; and three brothers, Jimie McGinnis of Pearl River, LA, Herbie Ferguson of Gravois Mills, MO, and David Ferguson of Raytown, MO. In addition to his father, he was preceded in death by twin brothers, Bill and Bob Ferguson and sister, Pamela Richards.

In keeping with his wishes, he was cremated and no services will be held. Memorial contributions are suggested to his children in care of Kidwell-Garber, P.O. Box 26, Versailles. MO 65084, in Wayne's memory.

Arrangements are under the direction and care of Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home of Versailles.
