CHUCK WINEINGER

Charles “Chuck” Eugene Wineinger, 77, of Versailles, Missouri, died peacefully at home on Saturday, August 5, 2023. Born on August 7, 1945, in Eugene, Oregon, he was the son of the late Clarence Ervin Wineinger and Ruth Mae (Reynold) Gingerich.

Chuck served in the U.S. Army in Vietnam as a paratrooper before starting his lifelong career as a flooring contractor. Chuck never met a stranger, he talked to everyone he met and will fondly be remembered for his jokes. Chuck enjoyed visiting with family and friends, you could often find him chatting with friends, or strangers, at a diner. He loved fishing, reading, and a good western movie.

Chuck is survived by his two children, Robin Wolfe and her husband Mark of Versailles, MO, Christopher Wineinger of Versailles, MO; nine grandchildren, Kayla Wolfe-Olesen and husband Taylor of Versailles, MO, Belle (Garrett) Wolfe of Versailles, MO, Cameron Wineinger of Kansas City, MO, Collin Wineinger of Kansas City, MO, Hunter Wolfe of Stover, MO, Nikki Wineinger of Eureka, CA, Marianna Wineinger of Petaluma, CA, Bentley Wolfe of Versailles, MO, and Nesa (Vanessa) Wolfe of Versailles, MO; one great granddaughter Jada Olesen, his sister Donna (Bob) Harriman, along with two nephews and a niece. He was preceded in death by his parents.

A special thank you to the people at Truman Veterans' Hospital and Hospice Compassus for their loving care and support during his final years as he battled cancer. Chuck loved "his girls" Terri, Krista, and Mandy.

In keeping with Chuck's wishes, there will not be a memorial service. He refused to go to services and always chose to remember his lost loved ones privately.

Cremation arrangements are under the care and direction of Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home of Versailles.

“ I have many so memories of my brother that is difficult to share all. Like all of us, he had his ups and down, but he had a heart of gold. He always enjoyed the many camping/fishing trips. One highlight trip was the summer(1970) we spent in British Columbia. May you rest in peace dear brother. You live in the hearts of your loved ones. May they have peace in your absence.
