

Chenoweth Charles

September 4, 2008

Services for Charles W. "Charlie" Chenoweth, 74, will be held at 3:00 pm on Wednesday, September 10, 2008, at Floral Haven Funeral Home Chapel., 6500 S. 129th E. Ave. Broken Arrow, OK 74012 (918) 252-2518.

Charlie was born in St. Louis Missouri, to Charles Francis Calvert and Margaret Walker Chenoweth who were residents of Broken Arrow since Statehood. Charlie played basketball and football and graduated from Broken Arrow High School. After a few years of college education at the University of Oklahoma, Charles gave 11 years of service to the United States Naval Reserve. Charlie had a long and distinguished career in banking at 1st National Bank of Broken Arrow, OK, working under the legendary Al Graham, founder. Charlie then went on to the FDIC regional offices in St. Louis and Kansas City before settling his family in the Kansas City, KS metro area where he rejoined the public sector and served as president of four banks during his career. Charlie is known throughout the banking/financial sector in the midwest for his professionalism, wisdom and character. Charlie retired in 1992 and moved to Camdenton, MO where he pursued his lifelong love for fishing.

Charles Chenoweth is survived by his brother, Frank Chenoweth, of Clearwater, KS, and his beloved eight children; sons, Scott Mantz of Seattle WA, Michael Chenoweth of Frisco, TX, Lt. Col. Charles Chenoweth II of Fort

Lewis, WA, Christopher Chenoweth of Lebanon, MO, Mark Chenoweth of Auburn, NE, Nathan Chenoweth of Rocky Mount, MO, Luke Chenoweth of Chanute, KS, and daughter Tina Chenoweth Lingbeck of Tahlequah, OK and 16 grandchildren.
