

Clayton Dale Randall

March 30, 1959 - September 30, 2015

Clayton Dale Randall, age 56, of Versailles, departed this life early Wednesday morning, September 30, 2015 at his home in Versailles.

He was born on March 30, 1959 in Miami, Oklahoma, the son of the late James Randall and Erva (Stinson) Randall.

Clay was united in marriage to Sandra Webster on November 10, 1979 in Baxter Springs, Kansas.

He was employed as an alignment specialist for many years, and later worked for MFA.

Clay was an active member of First Baptist Church of Versailles and served in several capacities through the years, including church council member, Sunday School teacher, and Chairman of the deacon board.

Clay is survived by his wife, Sandra, of the home; two sons, Brett Randall and wife Megan, and Seth Randall, all of Versailles; two brothers, Andy Randall and Rex Randall, both of Baxter Springs; along with many nieces, nephews, and extended family.

Funeral services will be held at 3:00 p.m. on Sunday afternoon, October 4, 2015 at the First Baptist Church of Versailles, with visitation being held from 2:00 - 3:00 p.m. Burial will be held in the Versailles Cemetery.

Arrangements are under the care and direction of the Kidwell-Garber Versailles Chapel.

Family and friends may leave online condolences at www.kidwellgarber.com.

“ I will only remember the great memories of growing up with Clay. We spent many days together in each other's homes as well as hang-out at the DEEP ROCK STATION on Randall's Curve! May the fond memories sustain you during this time of grief because we know that Clay is in a better place now. Kenny Mishler.
