“Crappie” John you will be forever missed. My adopted brother. I can't remember when you weren't in my life. You pushed me around on the merry-go-around in your folks front yard when I was little, when you were a teenager working in your folks gas station fixing flat tires. You showed me how "Francis" would drink orange soda pop and eat cigarettes. You would let me explore the old barn and then scare my sister and me. Years later you started a family, and our family, got to watch the children grow. We took vacations together in Wyoming with the kids. You always spent your birthday with our family at our cabin, on Wilson Bend, oh the fun memories, and to think we have them on home movies. Kaluha will never taste the same without you. All the times, when we came down in the winter and you would have a nice roaring fire going in our fireplace to keep my family warm. You always came by to check on us and see if we needed any help with anything and then end up staying the day, just visiting. Oh, how our whole family loved that. Our big brother coming for a visit. I loved our long conversation when no one else was around, when you really opened up. You are like John Wayne to me-Bigger than Life. Words can't express the loss I have in my heart for you. You know though. The only comfort, like we talked about is now you are with Shorty and I know how much you really missed him. Go and rest my brother as you deserve it. Hope to see you someday once again. Happy Fishing!

“ It's a hard thing to do to put into words what someone who has always been in your life how much they mean to me. Kind, considerate, fun, always willing to help out anyone when in need, and never treated me like a aggravating little sister growing up and was always my protector. I will miss him , miss getting big hugs from him, miss the jokes he would tell with a twinkle in his eyes, and a smile he had for everyone. I know he is in Heaven sitting in a boat fishing for Crappie out of pain ! reunited with his son and mom and dad. I am so proud to of had him as my brother! And will miss him greatly. Rest in peace my dear brother your tournament of life is done.
