

Danny DeLuca

August 22, 1946 - March 14, 2023

One late summer in the late 40's Joe C. De Luca and his wife Margaret (Tina) Wolff welcomed their first child and only son, Danny Lee De Luca. Soon came his three sisters, Donna (Carl) Hays, Maryann (Mark) Rittermeyer, Sara (Vic) Caruso.

After graduating from Northeast High School he went on to join the Air Force working as an aircraft mechanic. Danny met the love of his life and soulmate Mary Rose, and spent 42 years of marital bliss and known as the "Eternal Honeymooners". While stationed all over the world, he welcomed his son, Joseph Anthony (Debbie). Four years later his daughter Antoinette "Toni" Marie Rinella (John). They lived together in Lee's Summit, while he worked for Bendix, Allied Signal, and Honeywell. Danny and Mary Rose retired to Sunrise Beach at the Lake of the Ozarks. God blessed Danny with many grandchildren, Tony Joe, Ashley, Krystal, Rashelle, Ashlei, and Michael. And soon to have 14 great grand children.

Danny was a member of the Elk's Lodge #2705 and the Knights of Columbus. He was a faithful member of the Valentine's 5-81 coffee clutch.

At the age of 77 years old, Danny Lee DeLuca passed away Tuesday, March 14, 2023.

Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10:30 p.m., Friday, March 24, 2023 at St. Patrick Catholic Church. Visitation will be from 9:30-10:30 a.m., Friday at the church. Danny will be laid to rest at Old St. Patrick's Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to Danny's church, St. Patrick's Catholic Church of Laurie, Missouri.

Cremation arrangements are under the care and direction of Kidwell-Garber Laurie/Sunrise Beach Chapel.
