“ My favorite memories of my Uncle Danny were watching Dukes of Hazzard together and him just laughing and laughing as loud as he possibly could! He sure loved that show and I did because of that time with him!

“ We miss you already, Dad. You were the most stubborn person I knew, but also so silly and full of crazy sayings (you got that from your mom). I just know Granny was up there waiting on you with a blueberry delight. I'll miss our random calls talking about bird watching and how you would stick your tongue out at us when we asked you to do something you didn't want to do. The only thing getting us through right now is the thought that you are no longer in pain. We love you always & forever Dad and will never let your grandkids forget you 💙
