“ Our family and the Pipes family grew up together. We were at one another's homes a lot. David was always pretty quiet but smiled and laughed easily. We were girls so he didn't play with us much. He always did his own thing. He has always been kind hearted and good. We've always loved him. He will be missed by many. I'm glad he will be healthy and walking again now reunited with his Mom and Gina. ❤️

“ My favorite memory is when my grandpa and grandma would get up and make breakfast early in the morning on the weekends. We would camp in the yard during the summer. They both are missed so much and loved. I'm glad they are finally reunited with each other in Heaven! RIP Grandpa David. Say hello to grandma for us all ❤️👍

“ My favorite memory of my brother in law was seeing how he cared about others. David and his wife, Gina, took in family and friends in times of need, a lot! They were special people!
