I remember Dawnes eyes and how we both laughed at how we were almost the same height. Paul and myself send our deepest sympathies to John, Jeff, and Ketih and the grandchildren. They had a great grandma and will have good memories to live on.

I remember the last family funeral, Dawne said "We need to have a reunion and should not be the next funeral" and here it is she has taken her final walk home and we have yet to get together. Maybe we should attempt a reunion at her request...her smile...never stopped and her laughter never forgotten. Prayers and hugs to all for we all lost a very special person.
