“ My condolences and prayers go out to Denise's family and friends, she loved you all so very much. I will miss Denise's laugh, it was infectious, and she made everyone around her laugh. We could go weeks without talking, but once we connected, it was like being back at home. We would just jump in where we left off and would talk for hours. I will miss her so much, our talks, her smile and our friendship. Until we meet once again. I love you! Sandy G.
