“ I, too, can remember Diane at the bowling alley. She was such a hard worker and ALWAYS friendly! She talked about Heather and Clint all the time. Corky and I bowled on a late couples league once a week and many, many times would stay when the league was over and hang out with Ed and Diane. She was always fun to talk to.
She was a very smart, wise woman. I will remember those times, always. RIP dear lady...

“ I remember Diana when she was co-owner of the bowling alley. I had just started out as a beginner. She always had a sweet welcoming smile for everyone who bowled. May the angels fly you high Diana to your final home with Jesus.
