“ I worked with Dixie at SWB. She was such a charming, caring person and so nice to work with. She will be joining her husband and Jesus. God bless her and her loved ones. She will definitely be missed.

“ Dixie and Allen were such a wonderful couple and meant so much to all of us at Asbury. They attended everything they could, especially Wednesday night dinners and Over-55's (plus UMM for Allen and UMW circle for Dixie). Allen always brought cookies to the kitchen so we were never without sweets for our meals. The loss of each of them is a loss to many.

Dixie and Al were the sweetest people. I loved them both. I meet them at Lake of the Ozark and went to church with them. I was their Realtor prior to them moving to Springfield. They will always be remembered for the joy they were to many people. May they both rest in peace and rejoice now that they are joined together in the arm of Jesus. Hugs to the friends and family left behind.
