“ The world will feel her loss and heaven will be brighter because of her presence. She trained me on my first job when I was 13 years old. She helped teach me the ways of survival in the world of labor. The skills she shared with me have followed me though years of success. She was such a wonderful person. May Gods grace wrap her family in his loving arms as you face life's challenges and joys without her. Prayers for you all.
