“ I have many fond memories of better days when Ray and Dorothy and their family lived on the farm near Sigourney. I always felt at home there because of their warmth and hospitality. Dorothy had that infectious smile and good humor. Time is fleeting and I regret that I didn't keep in better touch in these later years. I can only pray that God blesses her soul and comforts her family.

“ Deepest sympathies and prayers to Jeanie and the family ... Paul worked for many years with Dorothy but we both adored and loved her. She could light up a room like no other ... her infectious smile, contagious laughter, her fun storytelling, those special signature hugs only she could give. Her uplifting cards always closings with 'hang in there'. What a lovely grand lady, we will miss you, Dorothy! Heavens choir must surely be singing loudly your welcome.
