“ Eddie was my brother-in-law. Her wife Marie was my husband, Gary's, sister. Eddie and Marie were always supportive of both us and various things Gary was interested in. He graciously took Gary and his mother to Paris in 1955 as his military dependents, following the death of Gary's father. RIP Eddie. Rejoice in being reunited with Marie.

“ I met Eddie after he married my cousin, Marie Buckland .Eddie and his family, including his grandsons,came for many years to our annual family pheasant hunt in Woodston, Kansas. Eddie reveled in his 32 inch full choke Browning 12 gauge shotgun best used for long distance shots. On the rare occasion he made one of these shots he would be so happy and give the full details to all listening.

We also had a memorial hunting trip together to Namibia, Africa . Eddie took his first Africa big game animal, a beautiful springbok.. Tradition dictates that one has to paint your face with the blood of your first Africa animal and Eddie duly celebrated with blood all over his face grinning like a prom date. Numerous drinks were shared around the fire that night.

Eddie was a very generous and kind man and he will be missed by me and my family. Sincere condolences to Randy and family. RIP Buck and Beth Buckland
