“ Oh my Where do I even start?! My sweet Elainemy camping neighbor for so many yrs & rendezvous!! We shared so much laughter, good food and many memories. I'm so thankful for the time we shared.....I'm thankful for the many canned goods in my pantry...the many quilted & sewn projects we have in our camper & home...the stories exchanged. She was a proud wife of Paul , a mother of her children, of her grandchildren and of all her family! She loved & treasured her visits to Texas and her family visiting from there! She looked after "everyone" in her presence.....was always making sure we were well fed..& had anything we needed. Words cannot explain how much I will miss her!!! May your wings spread and you soar so high my love!!!! Until we meet again....save me a seat!!! 💕💕

“ I may have it backwards but I think I remember it right...Elaine would always wear a white shirt while they unpacked all quilts pillows etc at conventions. When she was finished setting up she'd change into a dark shirt. She always had a smile. I will miss Elaine. I'm very proud to own some of her handwork. Love & prayers to all the family.
