“ I've know you since 2010. That's when you came into my life and loved me ever since. I may not be blood, I may not have grown up with you, but you have took me in as your granddaughter ever since. I love you and miss you so much and I can't thank you enough for everything you have ever done for my family and I. I'll miss bowling with you and you giving me pointers, I'll miss the hugs and love you gave me as you say "hey baby girl", I'll miss the pizza sharing on Thursday night, I'll miss poker games and hangouts with you. I just miss you in general but I'll cherish the 9 years that I have know you. ♡♡

“ Uncle Elbert I love you and miss you so much.... from being a little girl sitting in the strawberry patch at your farmhouse feeding goats and stray cats, to you teaching me to play poker and blackjack and bowling as an adult, hanging out at moms when you were in town working and seeing the beautiful house you planned at the Lake I have always felt your love and you've always made me laugh! So stubborn and so loving at the same time... I already miss you so much ... I know you're with Granny and Boo Boo and so many others... please watch over all of us until we meet again... I love you ♡

“ Uncle Elbert, you will forever be missed and in my heart with all the love in the world. You were stubborn and bull headed but innocent at heart. All you wanted to do was provide for your family. I love you so much and will miss our lunches when you would come to see me at work for your doctors visits. You were the best! We all love you so much and miss you already! Rest well in nanny's arms and tell your brothers and sister they are missed and loved! Take care old man until I see you again!

“ I'll always remember him walking into Laurie Care Center and coming in my office and telling me “hey, get to work”. Lol! Every time, never failed! His sense of humor, his jokes, and the love he had for family. He always had a helping hand when someone needed it. We will miss you friend, until we see you again, look over Theresa and your family. Boss Man!
