

Elsie Irene Yeager

October 20, 2010

Elsie Irene Yeager, age 82, of Versailles, passed away Wednesday, October 20, 2010, at the Baylor Medical Center in Grapevine, Texas. She was born October 30, 1927, in Versailles, Missouri, the daughter of the late John and Mary Meeks Wilson.

On November 19, 1947, she was united in marriage to George J. Yeager, who preceded her in death on January 11, 1992.

Elsie worked at Kansas City Bifocal for several years. Each year at Christmas, she enjoyed baking for the Fire Department, Police Department, and the Sheriff's Department. She also enjoyed crocheting, gardening, and tending to her flowers. Above all, she loved spending time with her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, attending as many of their events as she could.

She was a member of the Morgan County Democratic Club and was a proud member of the National Rifle Association.

She attended the St. Philip Benizi Catholic Church in Versailles.

Elsie was a strong willed, loving mother, who will be greatly missed.

She is survived by her son, Rusty Yeager and wife Loretta of Versailles; her daughters, Vahna Benedict and husband Britton and Velda (Kim) Leicher and husband Lyndon both of Southlake, Texas; nine grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; her sister, Betty Johnson of Independence, Missouri; and many other relatives and friends. In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by three brothers, Clyde Wilson, Johnnie Wilson, and Raymond Wilson, and one sister, Lena Hayes.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m., Sunday, October 24, at the Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home in Versailles. Interment will follow in the Versailles Cemetery with Larry Marshall, Gene Schultz, Robbie Johnson, Billy Wilson, Lyndon Leicher, and Bob Peoples serving as casketbearers. The family will receive friends from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m., Saturday, October 23, at the funeral home. Arrangements are under the direction of the Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home of Versailles.
