

Evelyn Howard

February 9, 1922 - September 29, 2014

Evelyn went Home to be with her Lord on September 29, 2014, with friends and family around her singing, "What a Day That Will Be"!

She was born February 9, 1922, in Schilling, Minnesota, to Robert and Anna Loganbill. She married Leslie Howard on November 19, 1939. They had two daughters.

She served faithfully beside her husband as they pastored in Weaubleau, MO, Princeton, MO, Nevada, IA, Camdenton, MO, and Russellville, MO. They also ministered to the seniors at Versailles Assembly.

Evelyn loved to quilt. She quilted hundreds of quilts and taught the art of quilting to anyone who wanted to learn. She loved to garden, read, sing and play the piano and organ. She enjoyed playing games with her family and friends. She won Blue Ribbons at the Apple Festival for her famous apple pies. Her most favorite thing to do was to spend time with people and tell others about her loving, faithful Savior, Jesus Christ!

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband Leslie Howard, daughter Helen Shinn and sisters Delores Faulks and Anna Mae Forster.

She is survived by her daughter, Marilyn Hopkins (Jim); grandchildren, Jennifer Hanks (James), Mike Hopkins and Jeanette Lawson (Neil); great grandchildren, Amanda, Helen, Katelyn, Danielle and Trey; brother Douglas Loganbill; and many nieces and nephews.
