Never went a Christmas without a card from my Aunt Evelyn. She reminds me the most of my grandmother. Always so nice and soft spoken. And her giggle, I will never forget. The way she said my name (Jenny) was something special.

“ Evelyn was my aunt. She was soft spoken, greeted you with a smile and enjoyed visiting her relatives. I would take my two children to my grandmother's on a Saturday at least once a month to visit and have lunch and often Evelyn would be there too. We also never went without a Christmas card from her. She is at peace and I rejoice with her in that.

Evelyn was a very good person. She was so sweet and offered the best advice. She often sent the most heartfelt cards. She also loved the Lord. I know he welcomed her into the gates of heaven.
