“ It's the little things, the small, everyday occurrences that you'll remember. The laughs, the stories, the smiles. Even though it seems like you can never recover from your loss, it is these very memories that will help push the pain away and bring back the smiles. May you take comfort in knowing an angel is watching over you. With heartfelt sympathy

“ i keep coming back to this page trying to find the words that can express what a great man he was...there just simply isn't enough I can say...Frank was so wonderful...his laugh...his sense of humor...I have so many memories of him from when I was a little girl when he would give me rides to see my grandparents...then I became so so lucky when I was blessed to call him my dad...I love him with all my heart....I love him for the joy he brought to my mom...for that I will always be in his debt....I love you and will miss you every single day!!!!

“ Frank was my brother, I am Nancy See, his sister. I will always remember Frank as a loving brother and a character, who loved to ski.
I will never forget the time that Frank asked my husband Fred, do you want to be a carpenter like me when you grow up? Then Frank cut the board in half on his brand saw!
He will be missed, Love to all. Nancy and Fred See.

“ To the family : my sincere condolences. There is no greater pain than the death of a loved one. Sometimes it seems almost more than a person can bear. Jehovah God helps us with this in His word, He promises us that He will put a stop to all sickness and death will be no more (REV 21;3.4) Jehovah also shows His love for us through the ransom sacrifice of His beloved son Jesus Christ. What a wonderful gift to be given! Then the hope of seeing our loved ones again on this earth, transformed into a paradise. The Bible tells us this was Jehovah's will when He created Adam & Eve. Please take your Bible and read: (Genesis 1:26,27; John 5: 28,29; Psalms 37:11,22,29). If you have any questions or comments, you can contact me at: ricruiz@aol.com Sincerely: Rick Ruiz Schwebel.
