“ I have so many fond memories from when I was little and he nicknamed me “Brat” to our adult lives. He saved my life when I was in the first grade and my school bus let me off at our flooded creek after a heavy rain. The bus couldn’t cross the heavy rolling creek to let me off at our lane, so the driver simply opened the door and let me get off. I started toward the creek, not realizing it would wash me away. Dwain wondered why I didn’t get off at their house after the heavy rains and followed the bus to our road. Just as I started to step into the creek, he called to me and took me back to his house. He was a Senior in high school.

When I was a young teenager, he would take me to the drive-in in his convertible and take me riding around on Saturday nights which made me feel so important as a kid!

I was so excited when he married Loyce and when Doug and Denise were born! We were both busy working but saw one another often until I married Lewis and moved to Eldon.

The critical accident he and Loyce were in changed many things but he was always the brother I never had.

He came to Mom’s funeral in September as she was always his “favorite aunt”. I gave him a hug and told him it was so good to see him. The last words I said to him were “ I love you”. I still do. Rest in peace, Cuz Buzz.
