I was trying to look her up because right out of high school I was working at a bakery in the Helena mall. Judy approach me and asked if my dad was Mont Grover when I said yes she had told me that he was also Glenda's.at the time it was too strange because Glenda was also my mothers name and couldnt understand why someone would have an affair and name the child after the wife. I regret so badly that I didnt look her up sooner. I knew who she was because I had went to school with her. Im very sad I didnt get the opportunity to really get to know her or find out if what Judy said to me that day was true or not.
